2. Vachan Prerana Din 15th October, 2016: -

Vachan Prerana Din was celebrated in college on 15th October, 2016 in the memory of late President of our country Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam. On the occasion of former president Dr APJ Abdul Kalam's birth anniversary, October 15, the state government has urged all the schools, colleges and offices to observe 'Vachan Prerana Divas' (Inspire to Read Day). Claiming that technology and gadgets have almost taken over the habit of reading, the government has urged educational institutions to develop ideas and programmes to, once again, cultivate the habit of reading among youngsters. The activity of sharing views of students about their favourite books through speech was conducted in college. The college also follows the principle of felicitating guests with Books instead of any other things in any programme.

1. A.D. SHROFF ELOCUTION COMPETITION 22ND AUGUST, 2017: -

An Elocution Competition was organized by Department of Economics on 22nd August, 2017 in the memory of late Industrialist Mr. A. D. Shroff. Ardeshir Darabshaw Shroff (1899-1965) was an eminent industrialist, banker, and economist. He was one of the architects of free India's banking and insurance business. Shroff was amongst the earliest proponents of free enterprise in India. In 1944, Shroff served as a non-official (since India was not yet independent) delegate at the United Nations "Bretton Woods Conference" on post-war monetary and financial systems. Shroff also co-authored the Bombay Plan, which was a set of proposals for the development of the post-independence Indian economy.

Various contemporary issues in Economics were focused by the students in their speech. The coordinator for this competition was Dr. Latika A. Bali (HOD, Department of Economics). Nearly 14 students participated in the competition. The cash prizes for three winners and certificates were sponsored by Charitable Trust of Mr. A. D. Shroff.
